A Celebration of American Music

Friday, February 27, 2015 at 8:00 pm

Avery Fisher Hall, Lincoln Center

The American Spiritual Ensemble, an internationally-renowned group of 18 world-class soloists from opera, Broadway and Gospel, joins the National Chorale for a tribute to the music that defined America. To commemorate the 150th anniversary of the American Civil War, we present African American Spirituals and music that evolved from this challenging time in history. These performances will take you on an emotional journey from edge-of-your-seat excitement to deep introspection. Selections by Copland, Carter, Parker, Shaw and more. Join us for an unforgettable evening!
